Salary

Gross salary per month in Indonesian (current BKR = 18.000 – November 2017).

Salary - IDR 25.15 million per month, depending on qualifications and experience.

Income taxes and national insurances

Salaries and all allowances are assessed as exclusive of any local taxes of whatever kind that may be levied by the Government of Indonesia. Staff currently contribute approx. 18%-20% of their monthly salary.

Applicants, who have been resident and working in the UK immediately prior to going abroad for employment, may be liable for UK National Insurance Class 1 contributions for one year.

Fares and travel

When employed from outside Indonesia, contracts include Economy class airfares for you and accompanying members of your family to Indonesia at the beginning of your employment. This is accountable and cannot be exchanged for cash.

Economy class airfares for you and accompanying members of your family at the end of the employment with Yayasan Dewan Inggris Indonesia (British Council Indonesia Foundation) either directly to the country of your next posting with the British Council or back to the UK.

This is accountable and cannot be exchanged for cash.

This allowance does not apply to candidates who are locally recruited ie already in Indonesia when recruitment takes place.

Baggage allowance

For internal staff, and external appointees arriving from overseas, a baggage allowance of up to £1200 (single employee) or up to £2000 (accompanied) which is accountable.

This allowance does not apply for candidates who are locally recruited i.e. already in Indonesia when recruitment takes place.

Annual leave allowance

40 days total including public holidays & mass leave (as determined by the Centre Manager)

Medical allowance

You and accompanying family members will be registered with the British Council's Group Medical Insurance as soon as possible after commencement of this contract. The current provider is by BUPA.

Settling-in allowance

Other allowances

Network Pension Support

The British Council will match contributions to an appropriate scheme of up to £1,800 per annum provided the member of staff has worked for the overseas Network for over three months. This is paid directly to the pension provider.

Additional information

Job Opportunities for Partners

Opportunities for partners to find work are extremely limited. There are International Schools for qualified teachers and some other industries will obtain employment passes for foreign talent.

Others

The initial contract is for one year and can be renewed on a year-by-year basis subject to satisfactory performance by you and on mutual agreement between the British Council Indonesia and you.

Accommodation

Contracts do not include housing but a range of accommodation is available for staff from kosts (all inclusive guesthouses) to flats up to large houses which teachers may decide to share.

Jakarta

Kost (guesthouse) 3- 5 million IDR including (washing, cleaning etc.)

Flats –6 -9 million month excluding utilities

Houses- 28million year + depends on the location

It normally doesn't take long to find a place, either from ads in the paper or through agents. Both furnished and unfurnished accommodation is available. Rent agreements are for one or two years and may require large deposits. Loans will be made available at the discretion of the Centre

Prices based on market norms

Transportation

Traffic can be a nuisance during rush hour periods especially in Jakarta on office hour but in the evening is much more manageable, compare to most of the cities in EA where the British Council has offices. Taxis and Grab bike (motorbike) are plentiful and cheap and so travel around the city is not difficult.

Most people use inexpensive pay-as-you go mobile phones, or have cheap monthly contracts with telephone operators which often include 3G/ 4G internet for your phone. Free wifi is available in most cafes and the vast majority of apartment complexes in Jakarta will have an internet connection, but connectivity can be rather slow for downloading but fine for most other usage.

Whilst the above information was accurate at time of writing, specific details and entitlements are subject to change.
